INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Member of
Collins/Bay Island Securities LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Collins/Bay Island Securities LLC as of December 31, 2003 that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether a financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Collins/Bay Island Securities LLC as of December 31, 2003 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

1. Nature of operations and summary of significant accounting policies

Nature of Operations

Collins/Bay Island Securities LLC (the Company), a Delaware limited liability company, is a registered broker-dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASD). The Company specializes in marketing third-party investments. The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Collins/Bay Island Capital LLC (the Owner).

Cash Equivalent

The Company considers its investment in a short-term money market fund to be a cash equivalent.

Revenue Recognition

The Company charges an annual retainer for its marketing services. The retainer is recorded as deferred revenue when received, and is recognized as revenue over the period the services are provided. Additionally, the Company may earn asset-based and incentive fees for each new account obtained for the third party. These fees are recognized as revenue when realized.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts disclosed in the financial statement. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company and is not subject to Federal income taxes. Taxable income of the Company is reported on the member's tax return. The Company is subject to an annual minimum state franchise tax and a limited liability company fee.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains cash in demand deposit accounts with federally insured banks. At times, the balances in the accounts were in excess of federally insured limits.

2. Related party transactions

The Company had an agreement expiring in 2006 with the Owner whereby the Owner paid all of the expenses of the Company. Under the terms of the agreement, the expenses paid by the Owner on behalf of the Company would not be repaid. During the year ended December 31, 2003, these expenses amounted to approximately $621,000. This agreement was terminated as of November 30, 2003. Beginning December 1, 2003, the Company pays for its share of all expenses.

As the Company and the Owner are under common control, the Company's financial position and operating results as of and for the year ended December 31, 2003 are significantly different from those that would have been obtained had the entities been autonomous.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

3. Net capital requirement

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1). This rule requires the maintenance of minimum net capital, maintenance of the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, not to exceed 15 to 1, and compliance with restrictions on withdrawal of equity capital or cash dividends if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2003, the Company's net capital was $19,358, which was $10,002 in excess of its minimum net capital requirement of $9,356.
